emocrat.

No. 6, Vol. 7, New Series.

Paris, Maine, Tuesday, June 24, 1845.

Old Series, No. 17, Vol. 14.

OXFORD DEMOCRAT, PUBLISHED EYERY TUESDAY, BY

Q. Old. Elkillett,

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR. TERMS :- One Dollar and Fifty Cents in advance. AnyEntisements inserted on reasonable terms;—the Proprietor not being accountable for any error beyond the amount charged for the advertisement. A reasonable deduction will be made for eash in advance.

> Book and Job Printing EXECUTED WITH NEATNESS AND DESPATCH.

> > DONALD TO SERVICE

HOPELESS LOVE. BY AMELIA B. WELDY.

The trembling waves beneath the moonbeams quiver, Reflecting fack the blue, unclouded skies; The stars look down upon the still, bright circe, And smile to see themselves in paradise; And some to sex densities in particular losses. Sweet some are heard to gush from joyous lossess. That lightly throb beneath the greenwood tree, And glossy plames float in smid the blossoms;
And all around are happy—all hot me!

And yet, I came beneath the light that trembles,
O'er these dim paths, with listless steps to roam;
For here my bursting heart no more dissembles,
My sail lips quiver, and the tear-drops come;
I come once more to list the low-voiced turtle,
To watch the dreamy waters us they flow,
And ky me down beneath the fragrant myrtle,
That drops its blossoms when the west winds blow.

Oh! there is one, on whose sweet face I pender— One angel-being mid the beautious hand, Who in the evening's hush comes out to wander Amid the dark-cyce daughters of the land! Her step is lightest where each light step presses, Her soog is sweetest mid their songs of glee; Smiles light her lips, and rose-bads, mid her tresses, Loop up their dark redundancy.

Yould, wealth and fame are mine—all that entrances
The youthful heart, on me their charms confer;
Sweet lips smile on me too, and melting glances Flash up to mine—but not a glance from her!
Oh! I would give youth, beauty, tome, and splender,
My all of bliss—my every hope resign,
To wake in that young heart one feeling tender—
'To clasp that little hand, and call it mine!

In this sweet solitude the sunny weather
Hath called to life light shapes, and fairy clies;
The ruse-bads lay their crimson lips together,
And the green leaves are whisp'ring to themselves;
The clear, faint startight on the blue wave flushes,
And, filled with odors sweet, the south wind blows;
The purple clusters load the blac-bashes,
And fragrant blussoms fringe the apple-boughs.

Yet, I am sick with love and melancholy, My locks are heavy with the drooping dew; Law normars hann me—marmars soft and holy, hate the beauty of these calm, sweet bower The hirds' wild music, and the fountain's fall; Oh, I am sick in this lone land of flowers: My scul is weary—weary of them all !

Yet had I that sweet, face on which I ponder, To bloom for me within this Eden-home, That lip to sweetly mormor when I winder, That cheek to sofily dimple when I come, How sweet would glide my days in these lone bowers For from the world and all its heartless throngs! Her fairy feet should only trend on flowers;
I'd make ker home melodious with my songs!

All me! such blissful hopes once filled my bosom, At me! such blissful hopes once filled my bosom,
And dreams of fame could then my heart entirall,
And joy and bliss around mo seemed to blossom;
But all these blissful hopes are blighted—all!
No smiling angel decks these Eden-bowers,
No springing footstep celoes mine in glea;
Oh, I am weary in this land of flowers!
I sigh—I sigh amid them all—alt me!

On the occasion of the visit in question, her friend was equally adipose, and it would have friend to party into night, she prayed to her Father in Heaven, that a tallowy trio. Mrs. Lobenstein begged leave to recommend her friend as her successor in the lave vatorial line—for her own part, she was indedended to reced professed by him who thought to cheer a dendent of work, thank heaven, and more; and when Sal Brown friend; a stage coachman; and telling him some did let him know, that the girl was missing that of the particulars of my object, asked him to in-line friend as her successor in the lave vatorial line—for her own part, she was indedended to work, thank heaven, and sal Brown the next day; and some night, and han't heen heard on since.

"But do you know where she is I' said my I met him on his return to town the next day; wife in a whisper.

"Well, I can't say that I do. My stall is at pugnance to talk with strangers respecting the parent's broken heart by speaking of a daughter's was walkin' bast, up and down the street, a follower will as walkin' bast, up and down the street, a follower will as walkin' bast, up and down the street, a follower will as walkin' bast, up and down the street, a follower will as walkin' bast, up and down the street, a follower will as walkin' bast, up and down the street, a follower will be the mother's house, and Sal Brown the next day; and sal Brown the next day; and sal Brown the next day.

"Brown the next day was walkin' bast, up and down the street, a follower will be the mother's house, and Sal Brown the next day." tire from the worry of trade.

I congratulated her on the successful termination of her flourish with the wash-tubs.

I might have scrubbed my fingers to the bones her my personal assistance, and exert all my factors, for Joe hasn't been away many hours togeth-before I could have done more than earn my dailulties in the clearance of this mystery. She delight bread, and get, maybe, a black-silk gown or live so, for Sundays. No, no! my Mary has done in kidnapping, or conveying away her daughter; with every particular, and would join them in shawl tied over my month. I got on the coach with every particular, and would join them in shawl tied over my month. I got on the coach was too insignificant to have oreated an enemy of self could compass in our lives.

That a friend in the probability of any one being concerned with every particular, and would join them in shawl tied over my month. I got on the coach was too insignificant to have oreated an enemy of self could compass in our lives.

That a friend in the probability of advice; but my for the next morning by day break, I was sixty of, for Joe hasn't been away many hours togethulties in the clearance of this mystery. She deting on the top of the Cambridge coach, well—with every particular, and would join them in shawl tied over my month. I got on the coach with every particular, and claim the probability of any friend Joe; he was such importance. I was too insignificant to have oreated an enemy of self-coal that she was compelled not to be seen, nor could I discern any thing of of carrying home; and in compliance with the period of my tale, he was but little known importunities of the old lady, she agreed to reside in her house as the invalid's sole and specific on him; yet his enemies have been unable to affect dark, but Joe was not to be found stockings, and high-low shoes. 'That fellow,' all attendant. The old lady, luckily, was almost fix a stain upon his busy life. He has since at when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown said Elliott, 'is always in company with the man side in her house as the invalid's sole and special attendant. The old lady, luckily, was almost friendless; an hypocritical hyena of a nice, who chapted, and had been promised, the reversion of her fortune, would occasionally give an inquiry relative to the state of her aunt's health; but so miserably did she conceal her joy at the approach of the old lady's dissolution, that the healty in question perceived her selfish and mercentry nature, and disgusted at her evident security of purpose, called in an attorney, and executed an entirely new will. There was no other relative to select. Mary Lobenstein had been find and attentive; and, more from revenge than good nature, the old lady bequeathed the whole a trifling annuity to the old maid, her niece, who also held the chance of possession in case of Mary's death.

When this will was read by the man of law.

In mentioned every particular connected with

The data height of reputation that must ensure as simple when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown
when I went after him. Where did Sal Brown when I went after him. Where di friends, to solicit the continuance of my washing of a search warrant. for her stout successor.

the ly free from the influence of that passion, and tances, yet every exertion had resulted in disapis not persecuted on account of her transcendent pointment.

"Every body pities me, but no one suggests a means of finding my darling, and I am almost distressing to a female heart. The for the continent of Europe; and, anticipating early—to carry a small present to the chandlers a lengthened stay, he had prevailed upon his wife at lengthened stay, he had prevailed upon his wife at lengthened stay, he had prevailed upon his wife shop woman, who was so kind to us when I was settle down in the rooms apportioned to his use, three streets to go, and ran out without a cloak in the rooms apportioned to his use, three streets to go, and ran out without a cloak is not persecuted in disapist that my mant might leave it at att early period; stand, had been covered with a double row of for I knew not how far he had to journey to his iron spikes, to prevent the intrusion of idle boys; for I knew not how far he had to journey to his iron spikes, to prevent the intrusion of idle boys; for I knew not how far he had to journey to his iron spikes, to prevent the intrusion of idle boys; for I knew not how far he had to journey to his iron spikes, to prevent the intrusion of idle boys; for I knew not how far he had to journey to his iron spikes, to prevent the intrusion of idle boys; for I knew not how far he had to journey to his iron spikes, to prevent the intrusion of idle boys; for I knew not how far he had to journey to his boy, disking a lady who seems generally judge for I knew not how far he had to journey to his becement, for I knew not how far he had to journey to his iron spikes, to place in the country, where he was compelled to it to enter under the number of the realm, listing place in the country, where he was compelled to it to enter the number of Items and who was then suffering under an affliction in the country, where he was compelled to it to be the day.

I wisked the backster in her vitnered in the country, whe as legioner of the individed the horiesty of my intentions. The carriage tolled speedily along. I determined down in the rooms apportioned to his need the stable, in one of the fashionable mews, and instantly set out to rourn home. She never the stable, in one of the fashionable mews, and instantly set out to rourn home. She never that the westend of London. But Mr. Lobenstein and instantly set out to rourn home. She never this destitute relice, with a very young daughter, his bade looped with some sweetheart; my will. The magistrates at the police office said, that he had cloped with some sweetheart; my will be fore the dawn of day, my friend Joe, who seemed defermined to have entured darker of a shave; is she made her gift to the poor woman and instantly set out to rourn home. She never the stable, in one of the fashionable mews, and instantly set out to rourn home. She never the stable, in one of the fashionable mews and instantly set out to rourn home. She never the stable, in one of the fashionable mews and instantly set out to rourn home. She never the total conditions and instantly set out to rourn home. She never the total brings to she will be fashed to the will

In the sixth year of her bereavement, Mrs. Lobenstein, who presided over the destinics of my linen, called at my rooms, in company with a lady of equal width, breadth, and depth. Mrs. Lobenstein was of the genuine Hanseatic build —of the real Bremen beam—when in her presence, you felt the overwhelming nature of her pretensions to be considered a woman of some weight in the world, and standing in society.—

and the sudden knowledge of her sinful state had butten find the mode of her sinful state had been too much for her to bear, and, in desperation. If you knows any more nor we do, and truidling away from me at the rate of the road soon afforded me assistance. A such that such appeared in has been too much for her to bear, and, in desperation. If you knows any more nor we do, and truidling away from me at the rate of the road soon afforded me assistance. A such that such appeared in the spirit of the road soon afforded me assistance. A such the protection, who presided over the destinics of my been too much for her to bear, and, in desperation. If you knows any more nor we do, and truidling away from me at the rate of the coach, and truidling away from me at the rate of the coach, and truidling away from me at the rate of the coach, and truidling away from me at the rate of the coach, and truidling away from me at the rate of the coach, and truidling away from me at the rate of the coach, and truidling away from me at the rate of the coach, and truidling away from me at the rate of the coach, and truidling away from me at the rate of the coach, and truidling away from me at the rate of the coach, and the definit of the rate of the coach, and the definit of the rate of the coach, and the act of the rate of on of her flourish with the wash-tubs. lady excited my warmest sympathy. She had girl has been sent over the herrin' pond to some he was, or where he went to. My plan was soon "Oh! I have not made the money, bless you, called on me for advice; but I resolved to give place abroad; but my idea is that she han't far arranged, and Elliot was bribed to assist me.

equalled the rage and despair of the hyena of a niece, whom we shall be leave to designate by the officer at my lodgings, where he was made niece, whom we shall be leave to designate by the officer at my lodgings, where he was made niece, whom we shall be leave to designate by the officer at my lodgings, where he was made niece, whom we shall be leave to designate by the officer at my lodgings, where he was made niece, whom we shall be leave to designate by the officer at my lodgings, where he was made niece, whom we shall be leave to designate by the officer at my lodgings, where he was made niece, whom we shall be leave to designate by the name of Elizabeth Bishop. She raved and to have no connexion with the subject we were lord asked me a few questions, but when his curviciant was satisfied, he left me to myself. I present my master's anger for selling his game without hem watching me from the other end of the field. I saw no mote of Joe or his friend for the rest of her unexpected good fortune.

The story satisfied the host, but I was much annoyed at my disappointment; and resolved not to be again outwifted. Every ed to leave the premises to the legal owner, and searchingly bent upon me; but I maintained in acquainted with many a curious item that seemed drank my beer in silent gloominess. The land-tone asked me a few questions, but when his curious asked me a few questions, but when his curious asked me a few questions, but when his curious asked me a few questions, but when his curious asked me a few questions, but when his curious to drank my beer in silent gloominess. The land-tone asked me a few questions, but when his curious to dasked me a few questions, but when his curious to have his curious type and tone asked me a few questions, but when his curious to have his curious type and tone asked me a few questions, but when his curious to have his curious type and tone asked me a few questions, but when his curious type asked me a few questions, but when his curious type asked me a few questions, but w cf till they were in full and undisturbed possess came the leading feature of her life; and she with the landlord. I made sure that he was my stituted, but I was unable to obtain the smallest sion. The "good luck," as Mrs. Lobenstein waited for many days with a placid face and a man, when, to my great regret, I heard him half-information, either of the abducted fady, or of called it, had fallen so suddenly upon them, that contented mind. The prophetic fancies of her led by the name of George.

Joe's individuality. His friend was known as a a very heavy wash was left unfinished, to attend maternal heart were confirmed, and L --- event- "I was standing inside the bar, chatting with vagabond of the first class-a discarded hostler;

ers were sold to another fat lady, and Mrs. Lo-presence at the police office for the purpose of have you been these two days?" benstein called upon me among the rest of her making the affidavit necessary for the procuration

THE SECRET GELL;

OR,

About eight years ago, I was the humble means directed six one of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well without some of the suburbs of London; it is, well worth recording, in exemplification of that, and chatter, in violent hysterica upon my crimson is the longon of the suburbs of London; it is, well worth recording, in exemplification of the suburbs of London; it is, the the document of the Great Metropolis, in the longon of the suburbs of London; it is, and the suburbs of London; it is, the the suburbs of London; it is, th

to the important business; and the complaints of ually restored the pretty Mary to her mother's the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer, with a character that marked him feady for the landlord, and settling for my pipes and beer had beer and beer had beer had been and beer had been landlord, and beer had been landlord, and beer had been landlord, and beer had b shameful death."

was walkin' past, up and down the street, a fol- Joe never travelled more than half a dozen miles;

The plain but earnest eloquence of the poor lowin' her profession. She's of opinion that the but Elliot, the coachman; was unable to say who

Mary Lobenstein, an artless, merry, blue-eyed I had a friend in the police department—a man to go to Hornsey, to her mother's, for the next him for six or seven miles along the road. The girl of seventeen had attracted the attention of a who suffered not his intimacy the horses bed-ridden lady whose linen she was in the habit the world to dull the humanities of nature. At immediately on her return.

When this will was read by the man of law, I mentioned every particular connected with of laborers, and seemingly unaquainted with each and they immediately slopped their expedition, who brought it forth in due season after the old the affair, and as he declined visiting Mrs. Loben-lady's demise. Mary's wonder and delight almost stein's house, invited her to a conference with equalled the rage and despair of the hyena of a the officer at my lodgings, where he was made the sanded tap-room, and smoked my pipes and searchingly bent upon me; but I maintained an invited the rage and smoked my pipes and searchingly bent upon me; but I maintained an invited tap-room, and smoked my pipes and searchingly bent upon me; but I maintained an invited tap-room, and smoked my pipes and searchingly bent upon me; but I maintained an invited tap-room, and smoked my pipes and searchingly bent upon me; but I maintained an invited tap-room in the officer at my lodgings, where he was made the sanded tap-room, and smoked my pipes and searchingly bent upon me; but I maintained an invited tap-room in the officer at my lodgings are the officer at my lodgings and smoked my pipes and the officer at my lodgings are the officer at my lodgings.

have you been these two days?' flow of the huckster, that a man named Joe was "'Heavy business on hand, buck—occupies the means of Miss Lobenstien's absence, but I of a search warrant.

all my time, but pays well. So give us a mug of was not sure that I was in pursuit of that identified been hard at work," said he, "and if your best, and d—the expense."

The western attending the pays well. So give us a mug of was not sure that I was in pursuit of that identified loc. The mestern attending the pays well. A year passed away. I was lying in hed one I have not found out where the young lady is con- I had no doubt but this was my man. I en- my suspicion gave an appearance of probability A year passed away. I was lying in bed one I have not found out where the young lady is conwintry morning, and shivering with dread at the idea of poking my uncased legs into the cold air of the room, when my landlady disturbed my accitatious by knocking loudly at the room door, and requesting my instant appearance in the parlor the wintry morning, and shivering with dread at the cealed, I have at least made a singular discovery.
I tered into conversation with him, in my assumed to my supposition, but it seemed as if I was not manner, and my knowledge of the Somersetshire dialect materially assisted my disguise. Joe was evidently a sharp witted fellow, who knew exactly what he was about. All my endeavors to draw and the impenetrability of my gantekeeper's dislor my supposition, but it seemed as if I was not to proceed beyond the limits of uncertainty. I dialect materially assisted my disguise. Joe was evidently a sharp witted fellow, who knew exactly what he was about. All my endeavors to draw and the impenetrability of my gantekeeper's dis-coach instead of a post-chaise.

some cooling liquid to bathe my face with.— lusty pull by the driver gave notice of our pres-While busily employed at the yard pump, the ence.

sound of voices from an adjoining stable arrested L.—, who had quitted the vehicle by the off my attention. The dim light of a lanthron fell door, requested the magistrate to keep out of building, and said .

the spikes of the chay you've left in the lane.' Pringe, because I have somebody hear that require "My luckless bundle was prouduced, and my strictest attention. Give your master this speedily untied. Directly Billy, for so was the card, and he will know exactly who I am, and suspicious ostler named, saw my rough, white, what I require."
great coat, he exclaimed, with considerable en- Our scheme succeeded. The tellow left h

I seed this ere toggery a valkin' arter Joe and me the window of the carriage for my card. Iin the meadow yonder. Ve thought it suspecta- and the officer glided from their concealment and ble, so ve mizzled back. And I'm jiggered if the owner vornt a sittin' behind our conweyance, of the house, before the fellow had time to give ven Joe hit him a vallop or two vith the vip to the alarm. The driver, who had pretended to knock him off. Tommy, my tulip, I'll go back busy himself with the horses, immediately openN short time before his death, he took an affectionate leave o with you to-night, and vait a vhile till the vind ed the carriage door and in a few seconds the tellect weel and domestics, retaining to the last, his sense and in the outpassed in the extraord in the extraord. He expired with the utmost calmness, ex changes.'

with the abduction of the day-another convincing proof that he was the active agent in Miss attempted to force his way to the interior of the Lobenstein's affair. With respect to my friend house. The police officer stopped him, and an the ostler, I determined to try the effects of a lit- angry altercation ensued. He placed his fingers tle coercion, but concluded that it would be better to let him reach some distance from his usual tile. L., who was busily engaged in search haunts, to prevent alarming his comate, Joe.

drunken östler desired the scarcely sober postil-tentrance to the hall, and yet I cannot discover ion to put him out at the door of a tavern. "If the door-way; and I am afraid that his signal has walked up to the astonished couple, and arrest-made it worse, for I heard the click of spring ing them on a charge of felony, slipped a pair of work directly after he gave his whistle." small but powerful spring handcuffs over the os- "This grating is a common appendage to tler's wrists. I conducted him, helpless and convent or religious house," said Mr. Wilson. amazed, to an adjacent watch-house; and men-g" Perhaps we are giving ourselves unnecessar tioning my name and office, desired his safe cus-strouble-let us ring the bell again, and we ma tody till'I could demand his body. The postil-robtain admission without the use of force." ion, who was guarded by my gig friend, became The officer and the magistrate exchanged much alarmed, and volunteered any information smile. The latter went to the man who had that I might desire. He confessed that he had opened the door, and said, in a low tone of voice, been employed that afternoon, by one Joseph "We must get into the house, my man; show us been employed that afternoon, by one Joseph "We must get into the house, my man; show us Whilst a union mourns, it is proper that afternoon, by one Joseph "We must get into the house, my man; show us Whilst a union mourns, it is proper that he had one which we wish the country Union of the States, have been covered with the pended, at least for one day, in the Executive Departments, as every is an evil, and one which we wish the country Union of the States, have been covered with the Mills, to carry a lunatic priest to the Franciscan how we can pass this grating, and I will give you a tribute of respect to the illustrious dead.

Monastery, at Enfield Chase, from whence it was five guineas. If you refuse, I shall commit you I accordingly direct that the Postoffice, and Office that the had made his escape. The exto jail, whether your connexion with this estable that he had made his escape. The exconstant of the former of the borhood was entirely unknown to me, and I questioned the postilion respecting the number of its inmates, and the name of the superior, but he professed to know nothing beyond the locality of the building, and declared that he had never been cultar shrillness and modulation. inside the yard gate. He admitted that Joseph Mills had employed him several times upon the great height and extent. Beyond the iron screen, same business; and that, rather more than a fortnight ago, Billy, the oatler, had desired him end, and a door of heavy oak opened from the to bring up a postchaise from his master's yard room thus formed into the body of the hall. An at a minute's notice, and that a young lady was open but grated window was immediately above lifted, in a senseless state, into the chaise, and the door, and extended almost from one end of driven down to the building, at Enfield, as rapid-the partition to the other. L-, observing this, ly as the horses could be made to go.

house, and at daybreak this morning I reconnuit- observed him level a pistol towards some object ered the front and back of the building. If I am any judge, that house is not devoted to monastic purposes alone: but you will see it to-morrow, I trust; for I wish you to accompany me as early in the morning as we can start, after procuring the warrants for a general search into the secrets of this most mysterious monastery."

enabled to complete our necessary arrangements. your own head." L ..., Mr. Wilson, the attorney, Mr. R ..., a L ... afterwards informed me, that upon reader's humble servant, stepped into a private in black in close consultation with a group of 50 miles from the place where printed, when sent by the pub-carriage, while a police officer, well armed, sate men. They were standing at the farther end of 50 miles from the place where printed, when sent by the pubwith the driver. The magistrate had been interest enclosure against a window, the light of in the State where published, one cent postage. For any distance beyond 20 miles, rested in the details necessary for the procuration, which enabled him to pick out the superior, and tance exceeding 100 miles, out of the State where published, one cent postage. For any distance exceeding 100 miles, out of the State where published, one can be state where published, one can be state where published, one and a half cent postage.

Velopoment of the mystery. An hour's ride stance, Joe.

On all paraphlets, magazines or periodicals which shall be brought us to the entrance of a green lane that "Come, come, Joe, make haste," said I,——, wound its mazy length between hedges of prick. "my fingers are cramped, and I may fire in misly holly and withered hawthorn trees. After take. traversing this lane for nearly two miles, we The threat was effectual in its operation. The turned again to the left, by L-'s direction, man was afraid to move, and the door of the endan ounce, and entered a marrow pass between a high brick closure was opened by his direction. Joe walk- Newspa certain place, where an assent in the narrow road party. favored the purpose, we were desired by Lto mount the roof of the coach, and, by looking over the wall, to inspect the back front of the building. Massive bars of iron were fastened as the depart of the house; in some of the house; in some of the most important and closing them, except the direction, and deliver the same into places, the frames and glass were extractly remove and fruitful, and it is so rish and prostoffice, or to any person for the synthesis of the most important and closing them, except the direction, and deliver the same into places, the frames and glass were extractly remove and fruitful, and it is so rish and remove and fruitful, and it is so rish an building. Massive bars of iron were fastened nor window were to be discerned.

issue to my scheme."

tery or convent," said the magistrate. er," replied L---.

ble to pass the vehicle in advance, and it was not. In a few minutes the carriage atopped at the Insucres. Those who wish to be successful in ten sheets of each kind. The papers are all of good quality. till we both drew up to the door of the roadside gate of the building, the front of which exhibited raising fine fruit and vegetables, must be contining, where I had previously stopped, that we dis- but few points for the attachment of suspicion, ually on the alert to guard against the ravages of covered that we had been in pursuit of a mail- The windows were shaded by blinds and cur- insects. You may lose your fine bed of cabbages "The waiter declared that nothin of a four lings that enclosed a small fore court, were of it is with every thing else. It becomes every veel natur, 'cept a vaggin and a nearse,' had pas massive oak, and being mounted on a dwarf wall, man who tills the soil to study the nature and sed within the previous half hour. Placing my effectually prevented the intrusion of uninvited gig friend over some brandy and water, I sought guests. The gates were securely closed, but the the recesses of the kitchen, that I might procure handle of a small bell invited attention, and a upon the figure of the hostler whom I had seen sight, and with his brother officer, retired behind in company with mysterious Joe. I advanced the coach. Our course of proceeding had been lightly, in hopes of hearing the conversation.— well arranged; when the door of the house was When I reached the door, I was startled by the opened, I put my head from the carriage window sudden approach of some one from the other sides and requested to see the superior of the convent. of the yard, and compelled to hide behind the The attendant, a short, ill-looking fellow in door. A stable helper popped his head into the flustian coat and gaiters, desired to know my busiuilding, and said — ness with him. "It is of great secrecy and im"See here, Billee, vot I found stickin' on portance," I replied. "I cannot leave the car-post, and unfastening the pailing gate, advance ergy — post, and unastering the parties of the footpath, and put his hand in at I'm blessed if we haint been looked arter. to the edge of the footpath, and put his hand in at secured possession of the outer gate and the door whole of our party were mustered in the entrance It was evident then, that Joe was connected thall. The man who had answered the bell, when he recovered his surprise, rushed to the door and in his mouth and gave a loud and lengthy whis ing for the fastenings of an Iron screen that cross

"This grating is a common appendage to and these, my officers, are acting under my direction."

The man spoke not, but raising his manacled hands to his mouth, gave another whistle of pe-

The hall in which we were detained was of a heavy partition of wood work cut off the lower climbed up the iron screen with the agility of the "I took down his directions respecting the cat, and had scarcely attained the top, ere we in the enclosure, and exclaim with a loud roice, "Move one step, and I'll drive a couple of bullets through your skull."

"What do you require !" exclaimed a tremulous voice from within.

"Send your friend there, Joe Mills, to open the door of the grating. If you move hand or It was nearly noon the next day before we were foot, I'll pull trigger, and your blood be upon police magistrate of some distinction, and the climbing the screen, he discerned a gentleman wall and a huge bank, surmounted by a row of ed trippingly across the hall, and touching a spring tolded that they can be distinctly seen at the office to be such high and gloomy trees. The wall formed the in one of the iron rails, removed the fastenings and that they reaton no writing, marks or signs, to serve the boundary of the monastery grounds, and, at a from a portion of the screen and admitted our purpose of written communications. If not done up so as to be [concluded next week.]

Wisconsin. This territory, shortly to become One of our party pointed out a pale and wild.

Wisconsis produced nearly one half, or 15,120. After the first of pext month the new l'esteffice law will be in looking face glaring at us from one of the grated windows of the bouse. "Let us away," said $50 lbs., and the capital employed by her was operation, when all letters through the mail will be charged activities. The bouse. "Let us away," said $664,600. The assessed valuation of the real cording to weight. As few persons have ever weighed a sheet $664,600. The assessed valuation of the real cording to weight. As few persons have ever weighed a sheet and personal property of all its counties, in the fairt sheet a person may use within a half ounce, the maximum issue to my scheme."

After the first of pext month the new l'esteffice law will be in $350 lbs., and the capital employed by her was operation, when all letters through the mail will be charged activities. The bound of the real cording to weight. As few persons have ever weighed a sheet and personal property of all its counties, in the fairt sheet a person may use within a half ounce, the maximum year 1843, amounted to $8,077,300.

After the first of pext month the new l'esteffice law will be in $350 lbs., and the capital employed by her was operation, when all letters through the mail will be charged activities. capital invested was $1,846,755. Of this amount, tains, but free from gratings or bars. The pail- in an hour, by want of proper vigilance, and so habits of insects; and this is a subject which most of us, to our very great disadvantages, are woefully ignorant of. We must get Harris' or some other good work on the subject, and study Genesee Farmer.

OXFORD DEMOCRAT.

PARIS, JUNE 24, 1845.

GEN. JACKSON IS DEAD!

Yes, the hero, the patriot, the statesman, has gone! He closed his eventful and useful life on the evening of the 6th inst. The decease of this truly great and good man, though long expected by the country, has produced a feeling of sadars; seldom experienced by our citizens. He has filled a larger share in the transactions of his country, than any other man of his age, and is one of the few men, whose names will go down to posterity as land marks in the history of their country.

No man who has lived since the days of the immortal Wash

No man who has lived since the days of the immortal washington, has possessed more strongly the affections of his countrymen. His best culogy is already written in the hearts of the American people. No pen can equal the impressions which his virtues have already inscribed there. He has been gathered to his fathers, like n "shock of con fully ripe."

The Louisville Democrat of Wednesday, 11th inst., contains he following melancholy intelligence:-"The term of his eventful life closed on Bunday evening, St inst., at 6 o'clock. On Sunday morning the report reache Nashville that he had expired, owing to his having fainted away pressing the highest confidence in a happy immortality through a Redeemer.

Gen. Houston landed at Nachrille, at half past 6, on Sunda evening, and set off in baste to the Hermitage, but was met li the physician, who laformed him that the General was no more The simple uncouncement of this melancholy, though long expected event, will excite the deepest emotions in the hearts of he American people. The memory of Jackson belongs to the country. Her history will contain the record of his valuable vices-his sterling patriotism, and a nation's gratitude wil on the earth, and it is better that this worn out frame should to rest, and my spirit take up its abode with the Redeemer. He continued thus to address his relatives and friends at it tervals, during the forenoon, and, as Dr. Esselman remarker his confidence and faith in the great truths of religion seems to be more firm and unwavering than any man he had ever sees die. He expressed a desire that Dr. Edgar, of the Presbyterian church, to which he himself belonged, should preach his tunera sermon, and that no pomp or parade should be made over his

On receipt of the melancholy intelligence at Washington, the resident issued the following Proclamation:-

Andrew Jackson is no more! He departed this life of Sunday, the eighth instant, full of days and full of honors. Ill country deplores his loss, and will ever cherish his noemory.—
Whilst a nation mourns, it is proper that husiness should be so

w. Washington City, June 16, 1815.

A Circular, containing instructions to Postmasters throughout he country, has been issued by the Postmaster General from which we make the following extracts as being of interest to our readers.

POSTAGE.

On letters dropped in the Postoffice for delitery in the same dace, 2 cents each.

charged, when delivered out, besides the regular postage, the cost of advertising, which will be on each letter 2 cents, or 4 cents if advertised in two papers.

On all circulars, banibills or advertisments, which are print ed or lithographed on quarto post or single cape paper, or paper not larger than single cap, and which are folded and directed but left unsealed, 2 cents on each sheet for any distance, when scaled these are to be rated as letters,

"Quarto post" is the size usually called letter paper, say & r 10 inches to the page; " single cap" say 13 by 8 inches to

When the circular is on a sheet larger than single cap, it is be rated as a pamphlet. As the postage on these articles is hargeable on each copy postmasters will carefully examine all packets and rate the postage accordingly.

On all pamphlets, magazines or periodicals which shall be oconnected with any manuscript communication whatever two and a half cents for every copy of no greater weight than on omee, for any distance, for every additional cunce one cent; any fractional excess exceeding half an omice to be charged a

Newspapers, pamphlets or circulars should be so enveloped pen at the end they are to be charged as letters, by weight.

It is a violation of law to inclose or conceal a letter, or other hings, or memorandom in writing, io any newspaper, pamol let, or magazine, or in any way packago thereof, or to make any writing or memorandum thereon, or on the wrappers in and such as we are all used to, for size and weight. Letter-paper, first variety, 136 grains.

second do, 134 third do, 131 Foolscap-paper, first do. 172 second do, 133 do. third do. 161 Small cavelope, 24 grains.

Large do. 62 Wafers, usual size, 1 gr.; Scaling-wax, usual quantity, 5 g The ensuing deductions are based upon the heaviest paper eep within the mark. An avoirdupois half ounce is 218 rains. We may therefore send as a single letter -

1. One and a hall sheet of letter-paper with wax or wafer. 2. One sheet of letter-paper with large or small envelope vax or water. 3. One sheet of foolscap, with small envelope, sealed with

4. One sheet of letter-paper, with a quarter eagle (2,50) er closed, and secured with wax, and the letter scaled with wax. 5. Half'a elect of letter-paper, or light foolscop, with a half eagle enclosed, secured and scaled with waters. 6. A sheet of letter-paper may contain a dime and a half, half skeet may contain a quarter-doller. 7. A sheet of letter-paper may enclose seven bank notes a be sealed with wax; or three bank notes, and the whole in a

TEMPEST IN A TEA-POT.

The Liberty Standard, of the 12th inst., looms u ke a thunder cloud, and launches its thunder bolts at us in Jove-like stile. It accuses us of being en-North with the South, and deprecating the clamor and abuse of the North in relation to the domestic in stitutions of the South. It calls our remarks "sordid godless, soulless." They may be, in his estimation simply because they are not embued with that spirit serted the two great political parties of the country weaken them. with a riew to mend their political fortunes, gratify their ambition, or to satisfy their bad feelings towards by determined upon, it was in our opinion a their former friends; who, we verily believe, if trusted with the power they covet, would prove greater ask-masters and tyrants than any southern slavedriver. The principles of this party, if carried out, whig party to sanction it and become abolitionhave a direct and inevitable tendency to bring about lists, we promptly took the field against such treaa dissolution of the Union, which, by the way, is an son. We need not now refer to the consequenobject openly avowed by some of the leaders. Sla-lees. Those who originated that treason to the ties to andertake the cure by making it a political cuses for defending annexation. question, is very much like cureing a broken finger

The rule or ruin spirit evinced by that party topromises which were made at the time of the adop- American Union." tion of the Constitution, and which alone enabled the framers of that instrument to form a common constitution on Concerning the Oregon. The following informa-States, and distinct communities, and such diversified furnished us by a friend :-the first company conhabits, intercets, and domestic institutions, are just sisted of OS males over 16 years of age, 57 females as binding upon the different States, communities, in-forer 14 years, 78 males under 16 years, 60 feterests, and institutions, at this day, as they were the males 14 years. There were 64 wagons, 453 day they were entered into, and should be as sacred oven, 648 loose cattle, 172 horses, 285 guns. It and religiously observed. A recommendation of the company passed the Great Nemaha sub-aly and religiously observed. Any attempt to disturb or destroy them can lead to no other than the most Mr. Everett. ruinous and disastrous consequences.

by cutting off the arm at the shoulder.

tutions existing in other sections of the Union. These parties have existed under various names, and their professed objects have been as various. The last guise assumed by them is political Abolitionism-a professed sympathy for the down-trodden and oppressed, which, when tested, is found to be rotten and hollow-hearted-demagogueism of the worst kind .-If they are so overflowing with the milk of human of May. kindness, and are so abundantly supplied with phi- The whole number of persons is 736, of work lanthrophy, as they would have the world believe, cattle 1148, of loose cattle 1228, of wagons 165 why, we would ask, do they not exercise it nearer of horses and mules, 211, and of the fire-arms a practical application of their principles within the well provided for the expedition. These com-scope of their natural vision. Or, can't they see panies composed the advance guard of the main oppression in a fellow being unless he has a black expedition which left Independence. [St. Louis oppression in a fellow being unless he has a black Reporter, May 20

The course pursued by these sympathisers, in making it a political question, is virtually a declaration of guess 't will be only a "tempest in a ten-pot."

The celebration of the Independent Order of Odd Follows, at Boston, on the 19th, was a splendid affair. The Colorest of the Control of the Control of the Colored of the C

The Steam Ship Caledonia arrived at Boston on the 19th, fifteen days from Liverpool. She brings no news of importance. All apprehension of a hostile collision arising out of the Oregon question has disappeared in England.

"OLD TECUMEER." All the fire and order of youth still animate the breast of this brave old veteran, who was ever ready to sacrifice himself for his country. On his way to Washington, where he now is, he passed through Columbus, Ohio. The Statesman says he seemed highly gratified with the position our government has assumed on the great questions now agitating the civilized world, and said that "honorable peace, or war" should be the American watchword,-We had suffered enough already from British aggression, and if resistance produced war, let it come; adding, with animation, that he had stopped five bullets and his mare fifteen, in the late war, and he thought himself good for one yet.— Let our people be impelled by the same spirit, and our country will never want delenders.-Col. Johnson was in the enjoyment of excellent health, and looked able and rugged enough to stand another campaign if necessary.

Annexation of Texas. The N. Y. Courier of June 7th contains the following remarks upon thia subject :—

"This press has ever been the advocate of annexation, and published articles in its favor as gaged in defence of slaveholders, because we, a few early as 1837. We said then, that the annexaweeks since, published an article contrasting the tion of Texas would enable us to monopolize the cotton growing country of the world; and thereby, not only give us a great moral power on England, but greatly extend and perpetuate our commerce; that it would forever prevent the introduction of slaves from the West Indies; and thus diminish, to a certain extent, the slave trade; of fanaticism which appears to be a test of merit (not that it would ameliorate the condition of our own of principle) with the Abolitionists of the North-and slaves by compelling their movement further which we are not desirous of emulating ... but that does South, where produce of their labor would be not prove us defenders of slavery or slaveholders. greater, and consequently where they would be We like the institutions of slavery just about as well more valuable to their musters, better fed and as we like political Abolitionism. The first is a State clothed, and better cared for in time of sickness; "In about an hour the post chaise was driven sed the width of the hall, observed the noise, and to the door; and the ostler, much the worse for turning round to his mate said, quietly, "If he's under date of Nakville, Tenn. June 9th, that "his mind reinstitution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave to the door; and the ostler, much the worse for turning round to his mate said, quietly, "If he's under date of Nakville, Tenn. June 9th, that "his mind reinstitution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands and smally, that at least five of the northern slave institution, whose desence is not required at our hands states would be well at our hands and smally that at least down political backs, disappointed and worthless of still adhere; and never have we met with a solfice beggars, and uneasy disorganizers, who have de-litary argument calculated, in our opinion, to

Annexation having been gravely and definitivematter of very great importance that the whole nation should become reconciled to the measure: and when certain presses in this State virtually set up the cry of disunion and called upon the

Nobody can foretell what may be the determination of an ignorant, vain and impulsive nation like Mexico, but we predict there will be no war. If however, she should declare war, the stars and wards the South should be deprecated by every good stripes will soon wave over this seems of Montecitizen and well-wisher of the stability and perpetui- zuma's sufferings, never to be furled until all ty of our institutions, and of the Union. The com- California shall be legitimately annexed to the gency on the 21th of May, 1845. The captain is

The second company consisted of 95 males o-Ever since the formation of the government there ever 16 years, 60 males over 14 years, 71 males has existed, and continues to exist, persons and parties under 16, and 57 males under 14. There were who have indulged in schemes and agitations, whose 435 work oxen, 614 loose cattle, 78 mules and object was, and is, the destruction of domestic institutorses, 59 wagons, and 172 guns and pistols. This company is commanded by D. Luther, and passed the same station on the 6th of May last The third company was commanded by Capt. Parker, and consisted of 60 males over 16 years of age, and 100 women and children. There were 43 wagons, 263 work cattle 340 lease cattle, 61 horses and mules, and 90 fire arms. This company passed the same place on the 10th nome? There are surely abundant opportunities for 384. These emigrants are of high character and Boston. The amount of bailding now proing it a political question, is virtually a declaration of gressing here, is certainly very great, and our war on the rights of the South. All must see that if mechanics and laborers find ready employment, it were possible for these "mis-guided persons," as at high wages. But this is a single feature only President Polk terms them in his inaugural, to be in our "business prospects." The various chanevery direction—have essentially augmented the natural advantages attendant upon the location of Boston, and but a few years will clapse ere the amount of trade must equal that of any city in dor of ive old nimself ımbus, highly int has ng the peace, ord,--ish ag-, let it

d stophe late yet.-spirit, erg.-cellent ugh to ourier

s upon

of anvor as nnexoize the therever on ale our the ins; and trade; urown lurther uld be ald be ed and kness; n slave es, beductive rate of ely ened, we n solion, to finitivemon a whole easure: irtually on the iditionch treasequento the ith the ed; and tic and ing exdeterm-

nation

no war.

tars and

Monteintil alf to the nformaias been iny confemales ns, 453 5 guns. เล ธนน-ลaptain is males ol males ere were les and pistols. ier, and y last by Capt. 16 years There 10 leose re arms. the 10th of work ons 165 fire-arms oter and se compieta or t. Louis iow proand our loyment, are only ua chan≁ Money ge, upon f moder--novina ividends, tions are trade of is legitithe bayfacilities il of the iding in nted the Iocation c ere the ampshire e indefi. petition e public y city in

RELEASE OF SANTA ANNA.

The Mexican steamer Neptune, Capt. Parkinson, which touched at Charleston on Thursday ily, exiles from Mexico arrived at Havana on the 7th inst., in the Br. mail steamer Medway from Louis, where he will send them by Santa Fe to his own town. There is a circuit for you in Vera Cruz. They were going to Venezuela.

steamer Dee from England.

The Havana papers sny that in their Mexican files they find nothing touching the difficulties as bout Texas. All indications of war between nounces that Burgees, who was arrested in Bos Mexico and the United State had cooled down. Ion last autumn and carried to England for tria It is recorded in one of the Havana papers as a fobber from the Bank of England, was put that the French Secretary of Legation had been on board the convict ship David Malcolm on the prompt redress, or he would demand his pass penal settlements.

The Charleston Courier adds the following: We have no positive particulars as to the order has been issued from the War Department course pursued by the Mexican government in to mount the batteries of the various fortifications banishing Santa Anna, but Capt. Parkinson in for the protection of the Atlantic coast. We forms us that he understood that the decree pre-scribed an absence of ten years—that his private Monroe are actively engaged in executing the Witness. property was respected—that he had with him a order. large amount of money, and was in good personal health and spirits.

It is stated that all anticipations of war between the United States and Mexico had subsided—and a strong practical evidence that such was the case, is the fact that the Neptuna the property of Mexicans, had been ordered to New York to refit, which would of course not have been done i the owners were apprehensive of such an even Horses roisoned. Thirty-six horses, belonging to Mr. Charles Whatson, of Yorkville, N. Y., proprietor of the new line of omnibuses to that place, were poisoned early on Tuesday morning last, in consequence of drinking the water in the trough at the corner of 3d Avenue and 85th at., New York city, into which some villain had thrown a large quantity of arsenic. The Journal $50 or $500 a side. of Commerce says! "Nine of the horses have died, and from appearances at least twelve of the remainder will expire. Besides these, several horses, cows, and hogs belonging to the neighborhood have died, and others are in a critical condition. Mr. Whatson offers $100 reward for that I was not able to labor at all. I have been atten the discovery of the villain."

on the 3d inst., Mr. Isaac Heath, aged about 20 tar's Balanti of Wild Cherry, and can cheerfully say I derived more benefit from one bottle of Dr. Wistar's years. The circumstances are as follows: He, while in the employ of James Baker, was sent to the river with others to wash sheep, which being done, to show his ability to swim with his clothes on, he crossed the fiver, and attempting I believe to be correct in all respects—and I am assured to return, his strength failed in the middle of the that it was through the agency of Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry that she received such benefit. assistance could be obtained he was dead. Said Heath was a resident of Aron, and Ich home about six weeks prior to to the event. He has lest a large samily to mourn the loss of their departed son and brothef.

The Senate Chamber's old floor has been litting success in Gennessee county, N. York. In the towns erally torn up, and carpenters are now busy in ber of bottles, and in several histances, the patients have putting down a new one, and making such all assured us of its beneficial effects. One gentleman in teration of the lobby, and the platform of the Secretary and presiding officers, as will admit of an twelve bottles, informs us that it was of more use to him additional range of eight seals. Two of these Wall SEAVER & SON. will shortly be occupied by Senators from Texas, two by Senators from Florida; two by Senators Pamphlets respecting this great Englidh temedy may Oxford; ss: WESTERN DISTRICT COURT, from Jown, and the remaining two by Senators be had gratis of Moses Hammond, only agent in Paris.

JUNE TERM, 1845. from Wisconsin. [Washington Jour.

Three men drowned at the mouth of Piscalu quis River. We are informed that three men belonging to Barnet & Goddard's drive swaumped S. Hutchinson, of Albany, to Miss Betsy F. Pingree, on Piscataquis falls on Wednesday last, and three of Norway. men were drowned. Their names were James Smith, of Ellsworth, - Dudley, of Hebron, and -- Smart, of Lincoln. [Bangor Courier.

Mormon Affairs. The trials of the persons soldier, aged 82. charged with the murder of Joe Smith, in Carthage, Illinois, have been brought to a close, and tesulted in a verdict of acquital. The same persons, however, stand charged with the murder of bands." The young gentlemen to be even have adopted the motto, 'Natural waists or no wives.'

A Mexican gentleman' was the other day in New-York, who had come from some town i the upper part of Mexico; came down to Vera last, on her voyage to Havana to this port, brings Cruz, embarked there for New York, bought information, that Gen. Santa Anna, lady and fam. fifty thousand dollars worth of goods here, and is now taking them round by the Ohio to St this American land of ours! Some six or eight On the same day. Bustamente landed at Hathis American land of ours! Some six or eight vana on his way to Mexico, in the Br. mail trade

A paragraph from the London Times ar

Defences of the Atlantic Border. A genera

Mission to England The Hon. Louis Mc-Lane has been offered the mission to England, and it is understood that he will accept it. [U. S. Journal.

Expenses of a Monarchy. The half-pay o he civil and military establishment of Grea Britain, is $24,000 000 annually. The Roya Family receive whole pay for whole idleness amounting to $7000,000. [Olive Branch.

Elsworth finished his thousand miles in as man hours, at New-Orleans on the 8th, at 8 in th morning, and then walked on for fun till 4 P. M. and offered to walk a mile with any body for

DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY .- De rien, Genesee County, N. Y., June 29, 1843 :- I have been afflicted with a very bad Cough for the last for ears—sometimes so severely that I could raise nothing but clear blood; and, for one year, I was troubled so be be discovery of the villain."

ed by eminent physicians, and have taken a number of different kinds of the most highly approved medicines in the country—all of which gave me no relief whatever Some few months since I commenced taking Dr. Wis Balsam than all the medicines I have ever used.

LOUISA CHADWICK.

STEPHEN KING, Supervisor and Postmaster, Darien

D' Buchan's Hungarian Baisam, is the only success. ful remedy for Consumption ever discovered.

assured us of its beneficial effects. One gentleman in particular, a firmer of Alabama, to whom we had sold Baladia, Marell 17, 1844.

MARRIED.

DIED.

In Corrinne, Mr. Joseph Harmon, a fevolutionary

STATE OF MAINE.

Otloto, ss.

Hiram Smith, and gave bail in the sum of five thousand dollars for their appearance at the fiext term of the court to answer the charge.

We learn from the Democrat that Bangor was

We learn from the Democrat that Bangor was never more truely prosperous than at the present lime. Lumber, the great staple of the region, commands a higher price that for several years; considerable real estate has feenelly changed blank and the most of the hundred dollars, and short, in side Fryeburg, on the twenty-sirth day of the hundred dollars, and many new buildings are going up.

Special Minister to Enoland. A letter from Weshington, in the Ballimore Patriot of Saturday 14th, says; "There is a report, which I believe is well authenticated, that the Hon. Louis McLanc, of Baltimore, has been oldered a special mission to England, in relation to the Organ question."

The National Intelligence of Monday, and thouse the death of Gen. Jackson, and devotes seveneten (including siz of eulogy) to the said blanks, or all abstinence or no husbands." The young genilemen to be even have adopted the motto, "Total abstinence or no husbands."

The ladies in the city of Rochester have adopted the motto, "Total abstinence or no husbands."

The young genilemen to be even have adopted the motto, "Total abstinence or no husbands." The young genilemen to be even have adopted the motto, "Total abstinence or no husbands." The young genilemen to be even have adopted the motto, "Total abstinence or no husbands."

The ladies in the city of Rochester have adopted the motto, "Total abstinence or no husbands."

The young genilemen to be even have adopted the motto, "Total abstinence or no husbands." The young genilemen to be even have adopted the motto, "Total abstinence or no husbands."

The young genilemen to be even have adopted the motto, "Valural veasies or no vives."

Oxford, sw: Western District Court, June

Tarm 1845.

Simon Lonhard, whose redidence is plung of the requise, and sunknown, the tanded the profile of the region, in the file of the lock of the plantiff, to a work of the plantiff, to a plund of the plantiff, to a requise of the

A GENT for Monmouth Mutual Fire Insurance Com. A true copy of the petition and order thereon.

A pany, Paris Hill Smejunal 3w6 Attest-1. G. COLE, Clerk.

STATE OF MAINE

Orford, an.

To the Sheriffs of our Counties of Oxford, York, Lincoln,

Cumberland, Konnebec, Somerset, Penebscot,

L. S. Hancock, Washington, Waldo, Franklin, Piscataquis and Arostook, or either of their Deputies: and to the Constable of any of the towns in said Counties;

ORECTING.

E COMMAND YOU to attach the goods or estate of Leonard B. Green, Commorant, to the value of one hundred and fifty dollars; and summon the said defendant, (if he may be found in your precinct,) to ap-pear before our Justice of our Western District Court, ext to be holden at Paris, within and for our said County of Oxford, on Monday preceding the second Tuesday of June, A. D. 1845, then and there, in our Court, to nnswer unto Issac C. Washburn, of Dixfield, in our said County, Esquire, and Jefferson Bray, of Portland, in the County of Cumberland, Merchent, both formerly of Portland, and done business under the name and style of Washburn & Bray, in a plea of the case: for that the said Green at Portland, to wit, at Paris, on the day of insulted by some Mexican soldiers. The Secretain of May. He is to spend the remainder of said Green at Portland, to wit, at Paris, on the day of tary had required of the Government of Mexico his life at Norfolk Island, one of the severest the purchase of this writ being indebted to the plaintiffs the purchase of this writ being indebted to the plaintins in the sum of sixty-nine dollars and fifty-four cents, then and there promised the plaintiffs to pay them the same on demand: yet the defendant, though often requested, has not paid said debt to the plaintiffs, but neglects and refuses so to do; to the damage of the said plaintiffs, (as they say) the sum of one, hundred and fifty dollars, which shall then and there be made to appear with due damages. And have you there the say! the two the contract damages. And have you there this writ with your do-

Witness, DANIEL GOODENOW, Esq, at Paris the nineteenth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-five. J. G. COLE, CLERE.

JUNE TERM, 1845.

IN the foregoing action, Ordered, that the plaintiffs of the foregoing action, Ordered, that the plaintiff cause an attested copy of his writ with this Order of Court thereon to be published three weeks successively in the Oxford Democrat, printed at said Paris, sively in the Oxford Democrat, printed at said Paris, the last publication to be at least thirty days before the next tern of this Court to be holden at Paris, in and for said County, on the second Tuesday of November next, that said defendant may then and there appear, if he that said defendants may then and there appear, if they see cause, and answer to the same.
Attest—J. G. COLE, CLERK.

A true copy of the Writ and Order of Court thereon Attest-J. G. COLE, CLERK.

STATE OF MAINE.

Orford, ss. .

o the Sheriffs of our Counties of Oxford, York, Lincoln Cumberland, Kennebec, Somerset, Penobscot, L. S. Huncock, Washington, Waldo, Franklin, Pis-cataquis and Aroostook, or either of their Deputies; and to the Constable of any of the toton in said Counties:

Thomas I Now to attach the goods or estate o Thomas J. Newton, Commorant, to the value o one hundred dollers; and summon the said defendant, (if he may be found in your precinct.) to appear before our Justice of our Western District Court, next to be holden at Paris, within and for our said County of Ox-ford, on Monday preceding the second Tuesday of June, A. D. 1845, then and there, in our Court, to answer uno Job Glines, of Dixfield, in said County of Oxford Ceoman, in a plea of the case: For that the said New on at Dixfield, to wit, at Paris, on the day of the pur hase of this writ, being indebted to the plaintiff in th um of fitty dollars according to the account annexed then and there in consideration thereof promised to pa the same on demand and interest; For that the sai Newton at Disfield, to wit, at Paris, was indebted to special request of the said Newton, in consideration thereof then and there promised the plaintiff to pay him said debt on demand and interest: yet the defend-From Wm. Seaver & Son Batavia, N. Y. Buchan's ant, though often requested has not paid said debt to Names. damage of the said plaintiff (as he says) the sum of one hundred dollars, which shall then and there be made to appear with due damages. And have you there this writ with your doings therein.

Wilness, DANIEL GOODENOW, Ese., at Paris, the twenty-seventh day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-five. J. G. COLE, CLERK.

N the foregoing action, Ordered, that the plaintiff cause an attested copy of his writ with this Order of Court thereon to be published three weeks successively in the Oxford Democrat, printed at Paris, the last publication to be at least thirty days before the next term of this Court to be holden at Paris in and for said County on the second Tuesday of November next, that aid desendent may then and there appear, if he see

HE undersigned hereby give public notice that we liave been appointed by the Hon. Judge of Probate within and for the County of Oxford, Commissioners to receive and examine the claims of the creditors to the late of Fryeburg, in said County, deceased, the same having been represented insolvent; that six months from the fourth day of March last past are allowed said oxford, ss: Western 1845.

ISAAU WALKER,

This is coming the strong game over the ladies, and we don't consider it altogether fait—for what they lose in waist they always make up in bustle.

The foregoing action, Ordered, that the plaining the strong game over the ladies, and we don't consider it altogether fait—for what they lose in waist they always make up in bustle.

The foregoing petition, Ordered, That the petition and of this order of Court thereon to be published three weeks successively in the Oxford Democrat, printed at said Paris, in and for said petition and of this order of Court thereon the second Trees (in the present heeps constantly a general assortion be set least thirty days before the next. It is the different wars sweet, but my seat was so promote from the nicknacks, that I could not rating my appetite, and the pickled cherries had such as defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and a defect upon my head that I made a most and there appears and show cause why the prayer of mental and a defect upon my head that I made a most and the province of the polition and order thereon.

SIMEON CUMMINGS,

A true copy of the polition and order thereon.

A true copy of the polition and order thereon.

A true copy of the polition and order thereon.

A true copy of the polition and order thereon.

A true copy of the polition and order thereon.

A true copy of the polition and order thereon.

A true copy of the polition and order thereon.

A true co

STATE OF MAINE.

Orford, ss.

to the Sheriff's of our Counties of Orford, York. Lincoln C.S Cumberland, Kennebec, Somerset, Penobecol, L.S Hancock, Washington, Waldo, Franklin and Piscataguis, or either of their Deputies; and to the Constable of any of the Towns in said Counties:

Ellish Andreas and the goods or estate of Elijah Anderson and James F. Anderson, bot of Andover, in the County of Oxford, and State of Maine, to the value of seventy-five dollars; and sum mon the said defendants, (if they may be found in you precinct,) to appear before our Justice of our Western District Court, next to be holden at Paris, within an for our said County of Oxford, on Monday preceding the second Tuesday of June, A. D. 1845, then and there in our said Court, to answer unto James F. Abbott, of said Andover, in a plea of the case, for that the said Elliah and James P. at Andover on the first day of December in the year slighteen knowled and forty-three cember in the year eighteen bundred and forty-three by their promissory note of that date by them subscribed for value received promised the plaintiff to pay him or order thirty-three dollars and seventy cents, to be paid in June next with interest; and the plaintiff avers the said time of payment has long since elapsed; yel the said defendants, though often requested, have not pai said sums to the plaintiff, but neglect and refuse so do ; to the damage of the said plaintiff (as he says) th sum of seventy-five dollars, which shall then and ther be made to appear, with due damages. And have yo here this writ with your doings therein.

Witness, DANIEL GOODENOW, Esq , at Paris the toenty-fifth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-five. J. G. COLE, CRERK.

Oxford, ss: WESTERN DISTRICT COURT, Oxford, ss: WESTERN DISTRICT COURT, JUNE TERM, 1845.

N the foregoing action, Ordered, that the plaintisively in the Oxford Democrat, printed at said Paris the last publication to be at least thirty days before th next term of this Court to be holden at Paris in and fo said County on the second Tuesday of November next see cause, and answer to the same:

Attest—J. G. COLE, Creax.

A true copy of the Writ and Order of Court thereof 3w7 Attest—J. G. COLE, Clerk.

Sheriff's Sale.

Oxford, 55 :--

AKEN on Execution, the same having been at tached on the original Writ, and will be sold a public Auction at the Store of J. C. Marble on Paris Hill, on Saturday the twenty-sixth day of July next, a ten o'clock A. M.,—All the right which ESSEC FUL LER has in equity to redeem the Homestead Farm o which he now lives in Hartford, in said County: it b ing the Farm deeded to him by Ezekiel Fuller and Ed ward Fuller, whose deed is recorded in the Registry Deeds for said County, Book 71, page 116, to which eference may be had for a more particular description which Farm was mortgaged to Isaac Strickland, Jan 10, 1845, to secure the sum of $300, and record of same may be found in the aforesaid Registry, Book 7 page 117.

SAM'I. F. RAWSON, Dept. Sheriff. Paris, June 19, 1845.

Treasurer's Notice, -Hiram:

NOTICE is hereby given to the non-resident owners of land and other real estate in the town of Hiram, County of Oxford and State of Maine, that the same are Newton at Dizneid, to wit, at raits, the following and county of Oxioto and State Town taxes, in bills comton plaintiff, for meat, drink, washing and lodging and taxed for State, County, and Town taxes, in bills composite recessaries before that time found and provided mitted to Peleg Wadsworth for collection, dated July for one the infant son of said Newton at the 14, 1313, in the following sums, which remain unpaid,

1 2 810 81730 832 01 832 01 lames Osgood, Tax in School District No. 2.

GEO. E. RICHARDSON, .

Treesurer of Hiram, for 1845.

Notice.

A T the Supreme Judicial Court which was holden at Paris, within and for the County of Oxford, on the third Tuesday of May, 1845, the undersigned we appointed a Committee to view the route and alteration prayed for, and give a hearing to the parties and their witnesses, on the petition of Asaph Kittredge and J. H. King in behalf of the inhabitants of the town of Paris, for an alteration "in the Snow's falls road, so called?" upon which petition the County Commissioners of said County located the alteration prayed for, and at the October term of the said Commissioners Court, in the year 1841, ordered the same to be recorded, and the same was carried to the Supreme Judicial Court upon the apseal of James Dearing and others. In pursuance of the order of the Supreme Judicial Court, the undersigned hereby give notice, that we will A good assortment of BLANKS may be found at meet for the purposes aforesaid at George Bridgham's tavern, in South Paris, on Monday the seventh day of July next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, when we will proceed to view the alteration prayed for in the original proceed to view the alteration prayed for in the original petition, and afterwards give a hearing to the parties and their witnesses: and all persons interested may be present at said view and hearing.

PHILIP EASTMAN,
O'NEIL W. ROBINSON,
SAM'L. F. BROWN.

June 11, 1345.

Commissioners' Notice.

THE creditors of the estate of Joseph Ricker, late of Peru, in the County of Oxford, deceased, represented insolvent, are hereby notified, that we have been appointed by the Hon. Judge of Probate for said Coun-Commissioners to receive and examine the claims of ill the creditors of said estate: that six months from this date are allowed said creditors to present and prov their claims: and for the performance of our duty in their claims: and for the performance of our duty in this matter, we shall be in session at the dwelling-house of Robinson Turner, ir., in said Peru, on Wednesday the second day of July, and first day of November next, from nine o'clock, A. M., to four o'clock, P. M., on each of said days.

SUMNER R. NEWELL, Com're. June 4th, 1845.

Dissolution of Co-partnership. THE limited partnership heretolore existing under GROVER & BURBANK, is this day dissolved, by mutual consent. All the affairs of the company will be settled by ABERNETHY GROVER, at the store formerly occupied by the said firm.

ABERNETHY GROVER, FORDYCE C. BURBANK,

J. H. WARDWELL. Bethel Hill, June 4th, 1846.

LIMITED CO-PARTNERSHIP.

THE subscribers, Apenuatur Groven, of Bothel and Joseph H. Wardwall, of Rumford, both in the County of Oxford and State of Maine, have entered into a co-partnership for the purpose of transacting the ordinary business of a country store at Bothel-Hill. The said Grover is the general partner, and the said Wardwell is the special partner, he having contributed one thousand dellars as his share of the capital stock. he name and stile of the firm shall be 👄

A. GROVER. The Term of time of said co-partnership le limitedito two and a half years, ABERNETHY GROVER, and a half years, J. H. WARDWELL, Bethel, June 4th, 1845.

STATE OF MAINE

OXFORD, SS: June 4th, 1845. Appeared the affire said Grover and Wardwell and acknowledged the above instrument to be their free and voluntary net.

Before me, M. B. BARTLETT, Justice of the peace.

THE above firm having purchased the lift, for the firm of Grover & Burbank, will still continue business as exensively and favorably as heretofore; and, grateful or past patronage, respectfully solicit its continuance. IF Now on hand-just received—an extensive assortment of spring and summer goods, which will be sold at our former usual low rates."

Treasurer's Notice,-Livermone. [TAXES UNPAID]

NOTICE is hereby given, pursuant to the Statute in such case made and provided, that the taxes assessed on the following real estate in the town of Livers nore, taxed to the following persons, and committed to Ulmer Perly, collector, on the third day of October; A. D., 1843, and returned and certified by said collector to ne Treasurer of said town March 15, 1845, remain tite

Description of the Names of persons taxed. Reuben P Brown, Farm on which he now lives; 12,90' Lang C. Wright,

Lang C. Wright,

Thomas Winslow, One acre of land hear the falls;

Lot No. 1, on east of side of the River, now East Livermore,

River, now East Livermore,

Farm on which he now lives, Stephen Nichless, on east side of the River, now BERJA, BRADFORD, Town' Livermore, June 9, 1845.

Administrator's Sale. virtue of a license from the Judge of Probate for the County of Oxford, all the real estate of Peter Holden, late of Sweden, in said County, deceased, will be sold at public auction, on the twenty-eight day of August next, at ten o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of paying the debts of said deceased and incidental charges: said estate consists of two thirds of the homestead irm of said deceased, in Sweden aforesaid, and contains about sixty-five acres of good land, and in a good state of cultivation, and well divided into tillage, pasture, and woodland, with good convenient buildings. Said farmers well welled, and has a good orchard, and lays on the road leading from Fryeburg to Paris, and six miles from the conditions of the condit he head of the Canal. Also, a small stand of hin acres of land together with house, stable, and black-amith shop. Said sale will be on the premises. BENJA, B. HOLDEN. Sweden, June 12, 1845.

Guardian's Sale:

Guardian's Sale:

WILL be sold at the dwelling-house of the sub?

scriber, in Rumford, County of Oxford, at public or private sale, agreeable to a license from the Probate Court of said County, on Monday the 21st day of July next, at four o'clock, P. M., one sixth part in com? mon and undivided of a certain piece of land situated in said Rumford on the south side of the Androscoggin river, bounded on the north by the road feading to Bethel, on the east by land of Jeremish Wardwell, and on the south and west by land of Peter C. Virgin, and is the property of Franklin D. Fedbody, minor child of Loammi B. Peabouy.

AARON GRAHAM, Guardian.

Rumford, June 10th, 1845.

*3w6'

BOOK-STORE.

PARIS-HILL, Me. opposite the Stage House. Among which are Warranted Deede; Town Orders,

Justice Write, Court do. Justice Executions. Bill of Sale, Sheriffs' Sale, Sheriffs' Returno

Mortgage do. Quitclaihi do.; Administrator's do! Guardian's do: Mortgage on personal proberty, Poor Debtor's Oath, Bail Bonds;

Marriage Cettificates, Highway Surverors Bills. and many others which are in common use. Persons in want of blanks, of any kind, call and see.

NOTICE !- CAUTION!! NOTICE I—CAUTION! I'A person calling himself Noncrouss is stavelling about the NA E. States, selling a spurious afficie of Parr's Lite Pills, with our name engraved, which is a forgery and will be purished as a criminal offence.

Also, all persons who deal with said Norcross, or with they other person who uses our forged names, are cautioped that if they resell, they may make themselves equally stable.

We are determined to prosecute all such encroachments upon our rights, and all such great public wrongs to the extreme of the law. Valuable information tending to procure the constitution of Norcross will be thankfully received and retourded by the subscribers.

TH. ROBERTS & CO.

117 Fulled St., N. York,

July 1, 1844.

July 1, 1844.

[17] The patrons of Purr's Life Pills will hear this in mind that all Agents for the sale of the "Genuine" are firmished with a certificate of Agency, signed SETH W. FOWLE, who is the sole Agent for New England. Office 139 Washington-street, Boston. is 1y Aug. 27, 144.

DR. WISTAR'S

Balsam of Wild Cherry:

Ill Eleat medicine known to main for insiplient Consumption I. Assimut of every stage. Bleeding of the Lings. Coulds, Liver Confinint, and all discuss of the Pulmonary Origins, may be had of Agents named below.

De All published statements of enter performed by this medicine are, in every respect, TRUE. Be careful and get the gennine "Dr. Wistar's Bulsam of Wild Chorry," as spurious imitations are abroad.

Orders from any part of the country should be addressed to S. W. FOWLE 188 Vashington St. Boston, sole agent for New England.

Agents.—Paris, Thomas Crocker; Norway, A. C. Denoiseth & Co.; North Livermere, J. Cooledge, Canton Mills, J. M. Deshon, Dixheld, C. T. Chase; Rumford, Jos. Graham; Rumford Corner, J. H. Warowell; Willon, J. F. W. Gould; E. Wilton; J. & E. Beans; August, E. Fuller,—isly 18

cause, and answer to the same.

Attest—J. G. COLE, CLERK,

A true copy of the Writ and Order of Court thereon

3w7 Attest—J. G. COLE, CLERK. Commissioners' Notice:

Natice of Foreclosure. VIIEREAS, the subscriber holds a mortgage, given the perindent of Bethel, in the county of Oxford, bearing date December 18, 1840, and recorded in the Oxford Registry, book 60, page 372, of a certain tract or parcel of land situated in said town of Bethel, viz: Lot numbered ten, in the range of upland lots in said Bethel, to which deed reference may be had for a more particular description of said land; and, whereas, the condition of said mortgage has been broken, I give this public notice to foreclose the Statute in such case made and provided.

CLARISSA F. NEEDHAM.

June 3d, 1845.

From the Democratic Review. THE YOUNG AMERICAN. RY A. H. EVERETT.

Scion of a mighty stock: Hands of iron-hearts of oak-Follow with unflinching tread Where the noble fathers led!

Craft and subtle treachery, Gallant youth! are not for thee; Follow thou in words and deeds Where the God within thee leads.

Honesty with steady eye, Truth and pure simplicity, Love that gently wineth hearts, These shall be thy only arts.

Prudent in the council train, Dauntless on the battle plain-Ready at the country's need For her glorion cause to bleed. When the dews of night distil

Upon Vernon's holy hill,— Where above it gleaming far Freedom lights her guiding star. Thither turn the steady eye, Flaching with a purpose high;

Thither with devotion meet,

Often turn the pilgrim's feet. Let the noble motto be Goo, the Country ;-Liberty,-Planted on religion's rock, Thou shalt stand in every shock,

Laugh at danger, far or near,-Spurn at baseness,—spurn at fear,—

Still with persevering might, Speak the truth, and do the right. So shall peace,—a charming guest, Dove-like in thy bosom rest,— So shall honor's steady blaze

Happy if celestial favor Smile upon the high endeavor; Happy if it be thy call In the holy cause to fall.

Beam upon thy closing days.

PERSEVERE!

BY JOSEPH MERREFIELD I'd not give up! No! grim despair Should never forge a chain for me Whilst thus I breaths my native air Within a land of little ty! No! dastard were that soul that cowers, Within a free-born land like ours.

I'd not give up! though every frown That Fortune's face is wont to wear Should rgb me of the small renown That may have been my humble share, Should thwart my every wish and will-Partune—through all, I'd woo the still!

Shame on the weak and craven heart, That books beneath each transient sorrow, Without the nerve to pluck the dart, And greet the sunrise of the morrow! Without the will, (for will is power,) To pluck the thorn and cull the flower!

For what, to man, is manked given?
For what his varied powers of mind?
For what his every hope of Heaven, When earth's fair gifts have been resigned? If not to brave misfortune's thrall, And rise superior to them all!

Then raise that drooping brow of thine, Resolve-and then endeavor! Give sorrow to the laughing wind, With fear and count-forever! Press onward—and despond no more— Thy motto be "Excelsior." Philadelphia, April, 1845.

* Still higher.

MISTELLANEOUS.

A NATION OF PIGMIES.

The following is taken from Harris's account of the Brittish Embassy to Ethiopia, published slain by a kidnupper—they pray, standing on their heads, with their feet resting against a tree, "Yere, if thou art indeed, why dost thou with him an enemy who may soon pierce his suffer us to be killed, who are only eating ants, and bring him back to "the vile dust from and ask neither food nor raiment. Thou hast raised us up, why dost thou put us down?"

May raised us up, why dost thou put us down?"

May raised us up, why dost thou put us down?"

A certain pope, who had been raised from his states under the immediate supermendance of the instant. West Bell transmitted us meritiate supermendance of the instant. West Bell transmitted us meritiate supermendance of the instant. West Bell transmitted us meritiate supermendance of the instant. West Bell transmit the American Agent in solicit. Belster: I will be extraordinary success of this neclicine, in the case of the extraordinary success of th

The country inhabited by the Doko is cloth-licalendar months. ad with a dense forest of branboo, in the depths. Lanor Lost. To gild refined gold, to grease of which the people construct their rude wigof which the people construct the people of th their arms and hands. They beguile serpents by which ing, and having torn them peicemeal by their long nails, they devour them row. But "Am I not a little pale," inquired a lady although the forests abound with elephants, but who was rather short and corpulent, of a crustalogs, fings, and isopards, they have no means by old bachelor. "You look more like a big of destroying or entraping them. A large tree tub," was the blunt rejoinder.

species, attaining an extraordinary height, the having accidently swallowed a rousing tumbler roots of which when scraped are red, and scrv- of gin the other day, was asked how he felt afed for food. The Yeboo Meytee are the printer it. "How did I feel?" said he, "Why, I ciple fruits, and to obtain these, the women, as felt as if I was sitting on the roof of our meetwell as the men, ascend the trees like monkeys, ing house, and every shingle was a jews-harp." and in their quarrels and scrambles not unfre-li he's in the parlor with sister Sell, and he keeps but he's parlor with sister Sell, and he keeps but he's hair is not woolly, and in the femules; the shoulders. The men have no beard. The mails, never paired, grow, both on hands and feet like eagles taloos, and are employed in digging for and. The people are ignorant of the oss of fire. They perforate the tass of the children when young, with a pointed but he says the children when young, with a pointed but he children when young, with a pointed but he can be trend earlings, but they neither tattoo not pierce the nose—and the only ornament worn is a necklace which is corposed of the spinal aproaces of a serpent.

Profife, and breading like wild beasts, the redundant population forms the wealth of the dealer in human flesh. Great annual slove hunts are singled nor human flesh. Great annual slow has the created and the office when he can be seen of the dealer in human flesh. Great annual slow hunts are supervised for the steamer Bob Letcher Caffa, and High and the said to be limited to the two banks with a captaint property is from the captaint of the when he can be considered as the present of the two banks with a necessary of the steamer Bob Letcher for the two banks with a said to be life tracts having for many revers been entireled, the band of movement of the two boats, while navigating the Other treat of the two banks with a said to be limited to the two banks with a said to be limited to the two banks with a necessary in data and the said to be limited to the two banks with a said to be limited that the recent of the two banks with a necessary in the said to be limited to the two banks with a necessary in the said to be limited to the two banks with a necessary in the said to be limited to the two banks with a necessary in the said to be limited to the two banks with a necessary in the said to be limited to the two banks with a necessary in the said to be limited to the two centre. Holding a gay cloth before them, they dance and sing in a peculiar manner; and the defencless pigmies, aware from expenance that all who attempt to escape will be hunted down Whitneyville, in Washington County, and J.

and perhaps slain, tamely approach and suf-Rowe, esq., appointed Postmaster. fer themselves to be blindfolded. One hundred merchants can thus kidnap a thousand Dokos, and although long prone to their old habits of digging anis, and searching for mice, ser pents, or lizards, the captives rarely attempt to struction will commence on Wednesday, the eleventh escape. Their docility and usefulness added day of June instant, under the direction of to very limited wants rendering them in high demand, none are ever sold out of the country bordering on the river Gochog, and none therefore, find their way to Shoa. The loregoing means of lugher attainments than usual in the elemenparticulars have been embodied from the conthe pupils, of both serves, for the practical business of the pupils, of both serves, for the practical business of the pupils, of both serves, for the practical business of the pupils, of both serves, for the practical business of the pupils, of both serves, for the practical business of the pupils, and for the profession of Teachers various tribes, ages, and religions, who have either visited, or were natives of the countries. The subscriber would respectfully call the attention referred to, and who, after attaining to manhood, kave been borne away in slavery. Together with their own language, they retain a perfect recollection of the land of their birth, and all that had befallen them since their loss of

The subscriber would respectfully call the attention pilk is sufficient to parge they not only purge and che carrangements, which have placed his School under the creey imparity; but strent
superintending care of the Trusters of Brusswick
they not only purge and che
creey imparity; but strent
superintending care of the Trusters of Brusswick
they not only purge and che
creey imparity; but strent
superintending care of the Trusters of Brusswick
superintending care of the Trusters of B

Agreeing in every respect with the type of pigmies of the incients, who describe them as being found only in tropical Africa, and it is a curious fact, and one worthy of observation, that the people of Caffa represent their foreinther. Boogazee, to have issued out of a cane in a forest; a tradition that cannot fail to call to mind the Troglodytes, who are also mentioned by the father of the history as heing inhabitants.

TREASURER'S NOTICE,—Woodster.

TREASURER'S NOTICE,—Woodster.

TREASURER'S NOTICE,—Woodster.

To die non-resident proprise affections of the biver, which frequently predece consemption.

It is decidedly the test medical to the two of the whosping cough.

COMPOUND STRENGTHENING

Stock, County of Oxford and State of Maine, that the taxes assessed on the non-resident land in said town for the proprise of the whosping cough.

COMPOUND STRENGTHENING

All who have used this plaster have found it to be a sme remains to the stock, and the stemach, lack, side, chest, or weakness in the stemach of the twenty of the biver, which frequently predece consumption.

It is decidedly the test medicing the best medicing the best medicing the best medicing of the whosping cough.

COMPOUND STRENGTHENING

All who have used this planter have found it to be a sme remained to the propose.

The propose of the biver, which frequently predece consumption.

COMPOUND STRENGTHENING

All who have used this planter have found it to be a sme remained to the propose of the biver, which frequently predece consumption. Herodotus, the Doko are unquestionably the TREASURER'S NOTICE,—Woodstock. by the father of the history, as being inhabitants of this portion of the African continent.

THE HAWK AND WEASEL. - An occurrence, not altogether unprecedented, but somewhat interesting, was noticed by Mr. John Vincent, in the neighborhood of Openuon, a lew weeks! since. Mr. V.'s attention was drawn to the movements of a hawk, sailing round and round in the nir, as if in quest of prey, when suddenly it descended to the ground, and scizing some; object, went up again in triumph. But a few moments elapsed, when the hawk was seen to descend the second time, with more rapidity

Many relives of Caffa and Enarca, who have visited these pignies, in their native wilds, for an obscure situation to the apostolic chair, was ovil, describe the road from the former kingdom to pass thrught forests and over the anountains, for me a small district in which he had formerly for the most part uninhabited, swarming with for the most part uninhabited, swarming with side beasts, dephants and buffaloes especially. From Benja, distant about fifty or sixty miles, it is ten days journey to Tuffice, the Omo river being crossed midway by a tude wooden bridge, sixfy yards in breadth. Seven stages beyond Tuffice whence the Doko country may he reached in one day. The climate is warm, and the seasons extremely wet, the rains companied the following and the seasons extremely wet, the rains companied to the seasons extremely wet, the rains companied to the seasons of the lands of their own particular district, as to make every substitute that the public desired in the seasons of the lands of their own particular district, as to make every substitute the public for the international to the apostolic chair, was calculated and the cate and established with growing an obscure situation to the apostolic chair, was calculated and the cate and established with the counterable with the counterable with the counterable that the counterable with the counterable that the counterable that the counters, at the counter and cate the following rates, viz. It is to construct the counterable with the counter and cate the following rates, viz. It is to construct the counter and cate the following rates, viz. It is the counter and cate the following rates, viz. It is the counter and cate the following rates, viz. It is the counter and cate and now prevent the counter and cate and cate and the counter and cate an

[called the Loco is found among many other] Deacon Peaquirk, a staunch temperance man, quently throw each other down from the branch- A uniour nov. "Ma! ma! Cousin Bill, he's in the parlor with sister Sall, and he keeps $6,000,000.

(F A new Postoffice has been established at and all that had befallen them since their loss of lifety—a loss by many dated at a very recent period, and which had resulted from that law-less violence of the freebooter, or from the unrestrained cupidity of mercenary relatives.

Agreeing in every respect with the type of the second will be made to make the School still more worthy of public patronage under this new arrangment, which will bring to its aid the experience and councils of many of our most respected criticals.

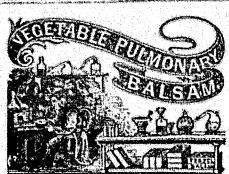

G. SWALLOW.

Non-resident land laying in the East part of Woodstock.

do Tin Fool, 25 Cleaning set of Reth, 50 Setting First Teeth, 91,00 Hork warranted—March 28

TIMOTHY LUDDEN, ATTORNEY AT LAW, TURNER-VILLAGE, Mr.

BRUNSWICK SEMINARY.

THIS Seminary was incorporated during the last seemed filter organ; such as loss of uppetite, for lines of the heer, and all other derangements and discases proceeding from a diseased state of that organ; such as loss of uppetite, for lines of the Legislature.—The first term of Instant, under the direction of Mr. GEORGE C. SWALLOW, as Principal.

The cultivation of the moral, as well as the intellectival powers of the pupils will receive especial attention it is also intended, that this Seminary shall afford the means of ligher attainments than usual in the element.

When used alone in all cases of obstructions in the such and allowed from a disease of contents of the hier, and all others of the liters of the hier, and state of that organ; such as loss of uppetite, for lines of the sees there and sees and sees, all such as the intellection will commence on Wednesday, the eleventh ma, Dropsy, Rheumathem, Indigention, Dispersy, Faintness and Sinking in the stomach, continents on the following terms.—

Mr. T. R. Hayes, intely one of the firm of T. B. Hayes & Co. Uragists in Portand, Me., and former agent in Portland, Me., still continues to recommend the men discount of the first organ; such as loss of uppetite, for lines of the sees of the last of undersory and headache, Jaundice, Asthematical Alley, and former agent in Portland, Me., still continues to recommend the stomach discounted in the following terms.—

Mr. T. R. Hayes, in the seemed Brown's Saccaparilla and Tomato Bitters are seed at the following terms.—

Mr. T. R. Hayes, in the seemed Brown's Saccaparilla and Tomato Bitters, and seemed Brown's Saccaparilla and Tomato Bitters, and seemed Brown's Saccaparilla and Tomato Bitters are seemed Brown's Saccaparilla and Tomato Bitters are seemed at the following terms.—

Mr. T. R. Hayes & Co. Uragists in Portand, Me., and

VEGETABLE BILLIOUS PILLS.
The reputation of these Pilks stands unrivalled for the cure of nervous or Hillians headache, costineness, indigestion, dystands and all disorders of the stomach: they are so compound of the stomach of the st pepsia and all disorders of the stomach; they are so componed. Our costomers recommend them very highly ded as to Le slow in their operation, but after they have the ommended by some of our first physicians, roughly operated upon the stomach and havels, one or two Years, in laste, pills is sufficient to parge the system, and in their operation they not only purge and cleanse the stemach and howels from The following is a recommendation from

The reputation of this mixture stands unrivalled for the cure preference to any article now in use.

Of all caughs proceeding from colds, asthma, chronic catarris, Falmonth, May 21, 4844.

affections of the liver, which from colds.

HERMORRHOIDAL, OR PILE

POWDER. This medicine may be relied upon to give immediate relief, and its use percevered in, will effect a certain core of this tu-ly painful and troublesome disease. This specific has been us-

Josian Dudley,

3 160 $75 $1 12 it painful and troublesome disease. This specific has been on the nown.

Unknown.

One fourth 13 25 15 22 and he propriete in his practice for more than fourteen years, and he has never known an instance where it has failed to effect a care. Try it. ERUPTIONS.

This ointment is a safe and editaculus remedy for the cure of the ligh and all cotaneous eroptions, and for a scald ligad,

SOUTH PARIS WOOLEN FACTORY.

TAMB South Panis Mascractumes Courant

ABWORNINY AB KAWo DIXFIELD-VILLAGE, MARRY SAMUEL F. RAWSON, Deputy Sheriff, & Coroners PARIS HILL, OXFORD COUNTY. ended to Peb. 14. 1842.

F. BROWN'S

Sarsaparilla and Tomato Bitters.

Allis is no quack noetrum; It is prepared from the best ma-L terials, and the receipt has been examined and approved by many of the first Physicians in the United States.

The true means of preserving the Health and Strength is to purify the blood and correct the unleasibly state of the Blowels. For this purpose we recommend the Sarraparlia and Tomato Ritters.

Hitters.

The component ingredient of these Bitters is no secret. They are composed of a very strong preparation of the celebrated extract of Spanish Sursaparilla and the extract of Tomatoes, with the addition of some of the most popular vegetable medicines.

They are kept by many persons as a FAMILY MEDICINE
They are kept by many persons as a FAMILY MEDICINE and have been given to the roungest continues, on account of the middless of their operation, with excellent effect.
The following are a few of the many new recommendations which have been sent to the proprietor of BROWN'S SAR.
SAPARILLA and TOMATO HITTERS within a short time.
REMEMBER—Always ask for Brown's, as there are counterfeits.

The following is a recommendation from Falmouth:-

they not only purge and cleanse the stemach and bowels from treety impurity; but strengthen and give new life and vigor to the digestive organs, &c.

I certify that my wife has been afflicted with a very lead having it at the stomach. For fifteen years past.—After using various medicines recommended for her complaints with lattle or no bearfs, she commenced using, by the advice of Mr. Edward Mason, Apothecary, your Surrapartitic and Tomato in the stomach, and is a valuable specific in all caesas of nervous certability and leysteria, hypochopairia, asthma, palsy and apoplexy, &c.

The following is a recommendation from Falmouth a very lead haven, Apothecary in the a very lead haven after the last of the end of the complaints with lattle or no bearfs, she commenced using, by the advice of Mr. Edward Mason, Apothecary, your Surrapartitic and Tomato Butters, and she is pany in better health than she has been surrapartity and leysteria, hypochopairia, asthma, palsy fore enjoyed for the last fifteen years; and I would cheerfully recommend to all and every one who is afflicted with any of the commissions which this medicine is recommended for, to use it in complaints which this medicine is recommended for, to use it in

J. B. LEACH.

Sold, wholesale and retail, by F. BROWN, the proprietor, 63 Washington-street, Ikiston; and Win. Brown, 331 Washington. ion-street, Boston; and by Druggists and regular appainted Agents in the city and country.

gents in the city and country.

Agents.—Paris, THOMAS CROCKER; Norway, A. C.
Deanison & Co.; North Livermore, J. Coololge, Canton Mills
J. M. Deshan; Disfield, Class. T. Chase; Rumberl, Joshan
Grahan; Rumford Corner, J. H. Wardwell; Wilton, J. P.
W. Gould; East Wilton, J. & E. Beane, Augusta, E. Foller, Aug. 27

PAR'RS LIFE PILLS.

THOMAS PARK. Born 1483—Died 1635.

ITHIIS fine Herbal Medicine bas A scarcely been imroduced into the United States six months, yet in this short space of time, without any extraordinary exercions on the part of the proprietors, its sale in the States of New York, Pengylvania, N. England States and Canada, has increased withtie most can more exercitables.

of the litch and all cutaneous erupnous, more one of the worst of humans.

It is a sure remedy for sores and humors upon the face with which rhildren are allicted, caring without leaving a scar, ellegating in all cases to take according to accompanying directions, the native reprince or cashing powder.

The public are now beginning to understand and appreciate the superior efficacy of this mild medicine to the powerful purgatures that have been hitherto sold them in the shape of pulls which that have been hitherto sold them in the shape of pulls which descend the second time, with more rapidity than the first, and as if impelled by something more than its own volition.

Beyond the extensive yilderness which bounds Coppa on the south, are the Doko, a pigment of the bounds Coppa on the south, are the Doko, a pigment of the properties of the second time, with more rapidity than the first, and as if impelled by something more than its own volition.

Upon examination, Mr. Vincent found that the volume had in its first effort taken up a weafour leet in hight, of a dark olive complection, and in habits evos more closely approximated to "the beasts that perish," than the buskmen of South Africa. They have neither isold in second bright bedding and lifeless to the earth.

ENGLISH REMEDY

To Wolling, Leet Priv, Wo. Mary, J. Corkett, Ording, Dating and Independent of the sandy ordinated the properties of the sandy ordinated the properties of the sandy and cruiter sand the black received the second time, with more rapidity than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and as if impelled by something than the first, and the first the care of the substruction of the blood, strengtening the system, as decided in a first effort taken up a weather complaint. Oakset, and continuity the complex than the first the country. It is a strength to the complex the complaint of the country and early strength occanonices foods that have lain dormant in the bedy during the wrater, but are again brought toto activity, will be speedly removed by taking Part's Lafe Pills every night, before going to bed, for two or three weeks. The proprietors have already many excellent tenimonials of the efficacy of Part's Lafe Pills in bilious and tearbuttic complaints complaints, chronic cases of colds, constipation of the howels, dysosphia, hver complaint debiling and complaints incidental to females.

Thus diseases known by the names of noneses, languor, ague, leptosy, asthmas, liver complaints, low spirits, bilious complaints lumlingo, blotches on the skin, measles, bowel complaints, performer affections, convers, team in the breast, cholera mothus, palimmediately waited upon by a deputation sons, from a small district in which he had formerly officiated as cure; it is seems that he had prome district in which he had formerly officiated as cure; it is seems that he had prome rediction and all cases of Colst, Cougles Spating, seed to inhabitants that he would do something seed to receive the following rates, var.

Is of them, if is should even be in his power; and close the Leags, Isonotation, Difficulty with full direct of them now appeared before him, to it househow, and Iron, and individually provided the Leags, Isonotation, Difficulty with full direct in the would fulfill it, by granting them two harvests in cerey year. If he acceeded to their modes for the consumptive teachers, and other evidence showing the sacryadded meria of treatment, and so adjust the Almanac of the Leags, Isonotated, and the eventual that in cerey year. If he acceeded to their modes of the rest of the state of t

"Thus shall their lumble labors merit praise, And inture PARIVL be blessed with knowed days." Agents—Paris, THOMAS CROCKER; Norway, A. C. Denoison & Co.; North Livermore, J. Coolidge; Canton Mills J. M. Deshon; Dixfield, Class. T. Case; Rumford, Joshus Graban; Rumford Cornec, J. H. Wardwell; Wilton, J. F. W. Gould; E. Wilton, J. & E. Beane; Augusta, E. Foller, TP All business by Mail, or otherwise, promptly a SETH W. FOWLE, sole Agent for New England. Office unded to Peb. 14 1842. 41 for family boxes, 50 cts. with full directions.—Aug. 27. 16